

Race Headquarters: Grafton Lakes State Park is located in northeast New York, north and east of Albany near the border with Vermont and Massachusetts. This state park is on the forested mountain ridge between the Taconic and Hudson Valleys and includes five ponds and 2,357 acres.

Camping: Camping available on site. Facility has bathrooms, but no showers. All participants are invited to camp before and after the race and attend the Pre-race instructional sessions, post-race dinner and festivities.

Directions: To reach Grafton Lakes State Park, take Route 2 for 12 miles east of Troy, NY. Turn right into the main entrance to the park.

